

"Stonewall Jackson - In the Presence of His Maker"

By Ron Lesser

On a hill near Fredericksburg, Stonewall Jackson kneels in new fallen snow . . ."in the presence of his Maker." Knowing that a battle is imminent and painfully aware of the sacrifice of those who are soon to fall, he prays for mercy for his men and victory over his enemies.

Archival Prints

Print size 17"x21", Image 15"x17"

S/N - Edition of 500 - $100

Giclee on Canvas

20w x 22h stretched

S/N - Edition of 50 - $300