

"Final Assault"

Stonewall Jackson -- Chancellorsville May 2, 1863

By Ron Lesser

As thousands of Confederate infantry on his right and left surge forward from the tangled woods, General Stonewall Jackson charges out from under the Wilderness canopy.

The infantry in pursuit of Oliver O. Howard's 11th Corps are from Brig. Gen Raleigh Colston's and Brig. Gen Robert Rodes divisions.

Alongside are his field officers Major Alexander "Sandie" Pendelton AAG, Capt. James Powers Smith, and Joseph Graham Morrison
